GCSE Non-Examination Assessment Policy

Introduction

It is a requirement of the Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ) that all examination centres have a policy for controlled/ non-examination assessment in place from the Autumn term of 2010.

Controlled/non-examination assessment is the form of internal assessment that has largely replaced GCSE coursework. It encourages an integrated approach to teaching, learning and assessment. It is intended to enable teachers to authenticate and confirm that students have carried out the assessment tasks set in accordance with awarding body specifications.

Non-examination assessment applies different levels of control (Low, Medium or High) at each stage of the assessment process: task setting, task taking and task marking. In some subjects, the awarding body will mark work. For most subjects, however, work will be marked by the centre and moderated by the awarding body.

This policy lists the responsibilities of the relevant staff in terms of organising, administering and overseeing non-examination assessment.

1. Head of Centre

Accountable for the safe and secure delivery of controlled/non-examination assessments. Ensure assessments comply with the JCQ guidelines and awarding bodies' subject specific instructions.

In the summer term prior to Key Stage 4, begin co-ordinating with subject teachers to schedule controlled/non-examination assessments. (It is advisable that NEAs be spread throughout the academic Years of Key Stage 4 or as appropriate for GCSE courses studied in other years).

Map overall resource management requirements for the year. As part of this resolve:

- clashes/ problems over the timing or operation of controlled assessments;
- issues arising from the need for particular facilities (rooms, IT networks, time out of school, etc).

Ensure that all staff, parents and pupils involved have a calendar of events.

Create, publish and update an internal appeals policy for controlled/non-examination assessments.

2. Subject teachers

Understand and comply with the general guidelines contained in the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting controlled/non-examination assessments including any subject-specific instructions, teachers' notes or additional information on the awarding body's website.

Ensure that at least 40% of overall assessment (NEA and/or external assessment) is taken in the exam series in which the qualification is certificated, to satisfy the terminal assessment requirement in accordance with the awarding body specification.

Where appropriate, develop new assessment tasks or contextualize sample awarding body assessment tasks to meet local circumstances, in line with awarding body specifications and control requirements.

Supply the Examinations Officer with details of all unit codes for controlled/non-examination assessments.

In respect of Science subjects, candidates work has to be stored by the examinations officer between sessions (as stipulated in the examination board instructions).

Supervise assessments (at the specified level of control). Undertake the tasks required under the regulations, only permitting assistance to students as the specifications allow.

Ensure that students and supervising teacher(s) sign authentication forms on completion of an assessment.

Mark internally assessed components using the mark schemes provided by the awarding body. Via the subject leader, submit marks through the exams office to the awarding body when required, keeping a record of the marks awarded.

Retain candidates' work securely between assessment sessions (if more than one).

Post-completion, retain candidates' work securely until the closing date for enquiries about results. In the event that an enquiry is submitted, retain candidates' work securely until the outcome of the enquiry and any subsequent appeal has been conveyed to the centre.

Ask the Additional Learning Needs coordinator (ALNCO) for any assistance required for the administration and management of access arrangements.

Understand the requirements for storage of electronic records and abide by the appropriate data protection regulations.
